

Royal British Legion, Paris Branch welcome a visit and lunch,
At the Fondation Franco-Britannique de Sillery, Château de Sillery,
91360 Epinay sur Orge,
With Colonel Geoffrey Cardozo MBE,
On Thursday 20th April

Colonel Geoffrey Cardozo will show you what the Franco-British Foundation does today and how it has grown since WWI to the large organisation that it is now, with 300 qualified staff looking after 800 French youngsters.

Following Geoffrey's excellent talk at the club house in January, this month's RBL lunch will be replaced by a lunch and walking visit of the Fondation Franco-Britannique de Sillery. The April lunch at the club house is cancelled.

We have a maximum allocation of 18 spaces for this event. The spaces are allocated on a first come first served bases. The cost of the lunch and visit will be 21€, of which 3€ will go to RBL funds. Please indicate your intention of participating by e-mail to reservation@advb.paris.

Timings and logistics:

- By Metro – Metro line 4 to Porte d'Orléans, walk 200m where we will meet at 1000hrs at the Statue du Général Leclerc, Rue de la Légion Étrangère, 75014 Paris here (call 0643454643 for any late comers). There will be free minibus organised by the foundation from the statue to the Chateau. Return at 1430hrs.
- By car – Meet us directly at the property at 1030hrs, Château de Sillery, 2 rue de Charaintru, 91360 Epinay sur Orge here.

You may also wish to sign up for the club lunch on the 18th May.

Regards,

Edouard Plunkett (RBL Paris Events Organiser)