

Royal British Legion, Paris Branch welcome

A talk by Doc Mc Kerr

“The Great Himalaya Trail”

In the Millennium room, at

The British Embassy Paris

on

Thursday 8th June 2017 6.30pm for 7pm

Doc Mc Kerr is a former officer of the Royal Engineers who served in Afghanistan, and is now executive development director at Cranfield University. He will give an illustrated talk on how he became the first person to successfully make a solo trek across the 1025 miles in just 74 days. One of the longest and highest in the world. <https://east2westnepal.org/>

As places are limited and open to all non members, please submit your name early, at the latest by Friday 2nd June to reservation@advb.paris. Consider your application successful only if you receive a confirmatory email reply. Embassy protocol instructs that all guests must be accompanied by official identification.

Ticket prices are: Adults 15 Euros, and Students 9 Euros

Payment on the night, please make out cheques to “ADVB” (L’Amicale des Vétérans Britanniques) or bring cash.

Yours Sincerely,

Ed Plunkett